Yes it's party time and looking good is a must. That's where we come into your life. Happy to talk you through that party look share our own whammy ideas.

Our goal is to create a friendly, supportive salon where we can share our views on fashion and trends, and personal style, and hopefully, inspire and be inspired by the beauty of hairstyling. Together client and stylist can fulfil that dream.

We often hear about the negative effects of the media and the damage created by trying to live up to celebrities in terms of beauty and thinness and hair styles. While it's true that many stars are not good role models for young (and older) women, there are some who buck that trend. We all admire the photo shoot, but at Hallidays we help you to come to a practical solution a crossover of fashion. Knowing in reality that one day you may be herding sheep or children, fighting the golf course, yet still able to turn a head or two.

Think Man, Think Hair

It is said that the suit maketh the man. (must have been a tailor).

As a woman, you give a totally different slant. Up there comes the look and part of that is the three S. Style, the Smell, the Smile. All of this is encapsulated in the HAIR. At Hallidays we listen, help, give ideas, give support. Gone are the days of football results talk. We want to talk about you.

Hair Colour

Why? Why not? Even after decades of using Wella hair Colour we are still convinced that there is no finer product to use on your hair. Every client is different and we have the experience to help you attain that "look". We have a system called Partnership Plus that allows you to maintain your colour at a discounted price. Allows you to have colour monthly, nothing worse than roots or grey "bits". Ask us for details of Partnership.

Brown they say is the new black. But this kind of treatment pictured is a base of heather tones with an over lay of foil high and low lights. The end result is different on all clients as your natural tones are complimented and enhanced to give you a unique look.

During January we are discounting base colour and added high lights, plus your cutting styling and conditioning our price is reduced to just £77.00, saving you over £20.00. (lots of colour variations).

When making your appointment ask for January 123 offer. To allow your colourist the extra time required for this special colour technique.

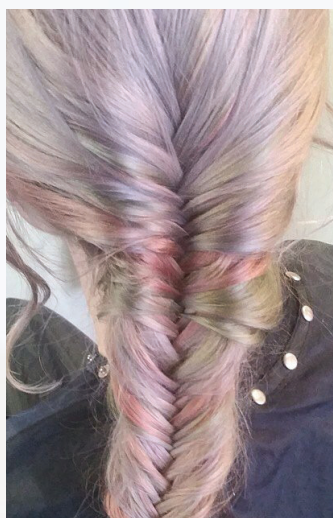

Straighteners are now part of everyday life, but what should you buy? At Hallidays we use GHDs in the salon and have done for a number of years. In our opinion they are the best by far. Unfortunately there are lots of "copies", counterfeits, mostly on line. They look good, but are dangerous and have no guarantee.

We are now selling the best of GHDs and for a short time to you our clients there is £10 off the list price. This beats the internet hot shots, and guarantees you that you are buying the real thing. Now in stock and special editions can be ordered
